WITHIN THE HOLLOW CROWN

The passing of Dickon Thorndike earlier this year has left a void at the heart of the Chiltern Shakespeare Company. From its inception Dickon worked tirelessly for the company and his performances will linger for some time to come. His mellifluous baritone voice and love of the text has inspired and delighted for decades.

CSC celebrates this extraordinary man with scenes from his beloved Bard, poems, readings and music. This is no maudlin tribute; but like the "old man" himself full of joy and laughter. For the seasoned Shakespeare fan this performance, in the grounds of Hall Barn, will act as a gentle reminder of his craft; or for those who find the plays a little daunting, an introduction to the greatest playwright in the English language

Scenes and readings from, amongst others, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Julius Caesar, Twelfth Night, Richard III, Henry V, Comedy of Errors, The Tempest, King Lear, As You Like It and Hamlet.

In accordance with Dickon's family's wishes, all proceeds will go to the Actors' Benevolent Fund.
